

Contact: Melanie Friscoe
P: (434) 293-2825
E: melanie@ccbo.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community College Business Officers Announces 2020 Officers and New Directors

Fort Worth — Community College Business Officers (CCBO) elected its 2020 Officers and appointed new members to its Board of Directors during the association's Annual Conference held October 26 – 29, 2019, in Fort Worth, Texas.

Rob Galick, Vice President of Administrative Services at Joliet Junior College in Joliet, Ill., is the CCBO President.

Beth Young, Vice President of Administrative Services/CFO at Rock Valley College, in Rockford, Ill., is the CCBO President-Elect.

Chris Wodka, Vice President, Finance and Administrative Services at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz., serves as CCBO's Vice President for Regional Services.

Maderia Ellison, Associate Vice President, Chief Business Officer at Northland Pioneer College in Holbrook, Ariz., is CCBO Treasurer.

Alisha Fox, Vice President of Finance and Operations at Cleveland State Community College in Cleveland, Tenn., is the CCBO Past President and will also fill the role of American Association of Community Colleges (AACC) Liaison.

In addition to the 2020 Officers, CCBO has named the following individuals to the Board of Directors: Luisa Ott, Executive Director II Accounting Services/Comptroller at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz.; and Suzzanna Rodriguez, Assistant Director of Accounting at Coconino Community College in Flagstaff, Ariz.

Suzette Senn, Director of Accounting at Midlands Technical College in West Columbia, S.C., was named Board Member Emeritus. Senn is the first individual to hold this designation.

CCBO equips community college professionals with the essential knowledge, skills and collaborative opportunities to better serve their colleges. The only organization dedicated to continuing education for individuals in the community college business office, CCBO trains the next generation of Chief Business Officers and provides current leaders with updated information on national issues facing community colleges through Leadership Academy, its flagship program. CCBO also offers continuing education through webinars, regional meetings and an annual conference.

###