

Contact: Melanie Friscoe
P: (434) 293-2825
E: melanie@ccbo.org

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Community College Business Officers Announces 2020-2021 Officers and New Directors

Charleston, S.C. — Community College Business Officers (CCBO) elected Officers and new members to its Board of Directors during the association's Virtual Annual Conference held October 19 – 22, 2020.

Beth Young, Vice President/COO at Rock Valley College, in Rockford, Ill., is the organization's President.

Chris Wodka, Vice President of Business Affairs/CFO at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz., serves as CCBO President-Elect.

Sheila Smith, Associate Vice President for Business Affairs at Midlands Technical College in West Columbia, S.C., was named Vice President for Regional Services.

Rob Galick, Executive Vice President of Finance & Administrative Services at Harper College in Palatine, Ill., is the Past President of the association.

In addition to the 2020 – 2021 Officers, Paige Childs, Vice President of Business, Finance & Facilities Management at Piedmont Technical College, will serve as the Leadership Academy Dean. BankMobile's Senior Director, Client Operations & Account Executive Lisa Koniuto was elected as Business Partner representative.

CCBO equips community college professionals with the essential knowledge, skills and collaborative opportunities to better serve their colleges. The only organization dedicated to continuing education for individuals in the community college business office, CCBO trains the next generation of Chief Business Officers and provides current leaders with updated information on national issues facing community colleges through Leadership Academy, its flagship program. CCBO also offers continuing education through monthly webinars and an annual conference.

###