Community College Business Officers Announces 2021-2022 Officers and New Directors

Charleston, S.C. — Community College Business Officers (CCBO) elected officers and new members to its Board of Directors during the association's Annual Conference held October 24–26, 2021 in Nashville, Tenn.

Chris Wodka, Vice President of Business Affairs at Central Arizona College in Coolidge, Ariz., is the organization's President.

Sheila Smith, Associate Vice President of Business Affairs at Midlands Technical College in West Columbia, S.C., serves as CCBO President-Elect Tiska Thomas, Deputy Chief, Business Affairs at Dallas County Community College District in Mesquite, Texas, now serves as Vice President for Regional Services.

Maderia Ellison, Vice President for Administrative Services/Chief Financial Officer at Northland Pioneer College in Holbrook, Ariz., is the association's Treasurer.

Beth Young, Vice President, Business Affairs at Central Carolina Technical College in Sumter, S.C., now serves as Past President.

In addition to the 2020 – 2021 Officers, Kathy Crusto-Way, Director of Business Services at Tarrant County College District in Fort Worth, Texas, and Kina Leggett, Comptroller at Copiah-Lincoln Community College in Wesson, Miss., join the CCBO Board of Directors.

Charlotte Eubank, Chief Financial Officer at Three Rivers Community College in Poplar Bluff, Mo.; Sandra Jacquot, Assistant Controller at North Idaho College in Couer d'Alene, Idaho; Sindy Reynolds, Bursar at Cleveland State Community College in Cleveland, Tenn.; and Suzzanna Rodriguez, Assistant Director of Accounting at Coconino Community College in Flagstaff, Ariz., were re-elected to continue their board terms.

CCBO equips community college professionals with the essential knowledge, skills and collaborative opportunities to better serve their colleges. The only organization dedicated to continuing education for individuals in the community college business office, CCBO trains the next generation of Chief Business Officers and provides current leaders with updated information on national issues facing community colleges through Leadership Academy, its flagship program. CCBO also offers continuing education through monthly webinars and an annual conference.
