CCBO Announces New Board Members

Charleston, S.C. — CCBO, the organization of community college operations and administrative services professionals, announces its newly elected slate of board leaders, representing community operations and administrative services professionals nationwide:

- President: Charlotte Eubank, Three Rivers College, Missouri
- President-Elect: Michael McCarthy, Northern Essex Community College, Massachusetts
- Vice President of Regional Services: Kerri Langoni-Carpenter, San Juan College, New Mexico
- Treasurer: Russell Kupfer, Northland Pioneer College, Arizona
- Past President: Maderia Ellison, Northland Pioneer College, Arizona

Additional appointments to the CCBO Board of Directors include Christopher Murphy of Northeast Mississippi Community College in Mississippi as Leadership Academy dean; Katrina Walley of Clovis Community College in New Mexico as Region 2 representative; Sheree Zalanka of Richland Community College in Illinois as Region 5 representative; and Allison Gagne of Northern Essex Community College in Massachusetts as Region 8 representative.

As they begin their terms, CCBO recognizes these leaders for their commitment to strengthening the community college business office profession. Their knowledge and experience will help advance CCBO's efforts to support professional growth, encourage collaboration, and promote the exchange of best practices among community college business officers.

About CCBO: CCBO connects and equips community college decision-makers of today and tomorrow through professional development, collaboration, and innovation. The only organization dedicated to continuing education for individuals in community college operations and administrative services, CCBO trains the next generation of Chief Business Officers and provides current leaders with updated information on national issues facing community colleges through Leadership Academy, its flagship program. CCBO also offers continuing education through webinars, regional meetings and an annual conference. To learn more about CCBO, please visit ccbo.org.
